

NOTE ON OUTSOURCING

When you open a Yuh bank account, you open an account with Swissquote Bank Ltd (“we” or “us”). To provide our services, we may rely on third parties to which we outsource certain activities in accordance with Section 24 of the General Terms and Conditions for Yuh Accounts.

Outsourced activities remain under our responsibility and supervision to the extent required by applicable laws and regulations. To render our services relating to Yuh bank accounts, we currently outsource:

- the processing of debit card transactions to a provider with operations in the United States;
- the manufacturing of physical debit cards to a Swiss provider that also maintains operations in France;
- the provision of the eBill service to a Swiss provider.

If you have questions in relation to this document, please reach out to us using the contact function of your Yuh App.
